Grass Flower

- Ra Tae-joo

Pretty
With a close look

Lovely
With a long gaze

So are you.

There are things where beauty can be seen only when you approach, look at it, and observe it.

It seems like nothing from a distance, but if you look closely, you can see what it is and what nature's rules it consists of.

This was implemented using FaceOSC.

The part that makes the flower is referred to below.

Parameters

1. If you open your mouth, the petal grows in size.
2. If you get closer, you can see more closely.
3. If you turn your head, you can observe it in different directions.
